To whom it may concern,

The food safety trainings which are provided by State Food Safety are in alignment with the Colorado Retail Food Establishment Rules and Regulations and therefore Jefferson County Public Health approves of their use by the retail food industry. When registering for the food handlers or manager course on statefoodsafety.com please select Colorado and then Jefferson County under the course that you are taking.

Sincerely,

Mindi Ramig, REHS
Food Program Manager
